

Clay Newton
Senior Vice President, Partner

CAREER SUMMARY

Clay Newton began his career 24 years ago working in commercial real estate appraisal. He started as a commercial real estate broker in 1998, founded his own company in 2006 and in 2013 joined Kidder Mathews. Clay is currently a senior vice president and partner at Kidder Mathews where his focus is representing apartment property owners and investors in the sale and acquisition of assets valued between $1 million and $20 million.

Clay has served on the board and development committee of Portland Youth Builders, helping to improve the lives of at-risk students. He serves on the forms committee for the Commercial Association of Brokers and is the past president of the Commercial Real Estate Brokers of Metropolitan Portland (COMP). He is a graduate of the University of Portland, where he played NCAA Division I tennis and lives with his wife Dianna and their 10 year old daughter Evangeline, in northeast Portland.
