

Mario Previtali
First Vice President

CAREER SUMMARY

Mario Previtali is an experienced real estate professional selling and leasing commercial properties throughout San Francisco’s most sought after neighborhoods. Mario specializes in leasing creative office and flex spaces throughout Downtown, South of Market, Potrero and The Mission. His representation of both landlords and tenants, gives him a well-balanced approach to every transaction.

As a tenant advisor, Mario helps growing companies by streamlining the lease process and creating sustainable exit strategies. His experience in sublease disposition and office expansion makes it simple for businesses to expand and have all of their needs met.

When representing landlords, Mario works side by side with owners of both single and multi-tenant commercial properties. His expertise and understanding of tenant’s needs, affords him the ability to advise his landlord clients on exact build outs needed to attract tenants. Mario prides himself upon finding under utilized commercial properties and educating clients to ensure long-term profitability for their assets.

Mario is a results-oriented San Francisco commercial real estate expert. He represents both landlords and tenants in leasing creative office and flex spaces throughout Downtown, South of Market, Potrero and The Mission. Mario maintains long-term business relationships and welcomes every opportunity to develop new ones.
