

Cascadia Capital

Project Outline

The project focus was relocating the Seattle office of this national investment bank into a 7,100 square foot space in a recently renovated historic building. The space was chosen because it provided a calm atmosphere for the company to conduct its high stress business.

Scope

GVA Kidder Mathews provided full project management services during this fast-paced project that included selection of the vendors and contractors.

