

Cranium

Project Outline

The goal for Cranium was to create a unique space that expressed their image as a high-tech game company while, at the same time, providing a solid corporate identity to employees and the business community.

Scope

GVA Kidder Mathews provided full project management services during the design, pre-construction, construction and occupancy.

