

Oppenheimer

Project Outline

This national financial investment firm was relocating their office from Seattle to Bellevue. The project team was tasked with delivering a well thought out design that stayed within the allotted budget. The project was completed on time and within budget.

Scope

Acting as the owner's representative, GVA Kidder Mathews managed the construction process, cost management efforts, weekly client/design team meetings and liaison responsibilities with the landlord.