

Turgeon Raine

Project Outline

Turgeon Raine is a high-end jewelry store that was relocating from a leased space into a building they purchased. The project consisted of premium finishes, major mechanical and electrical upgrades, seismic and structural upgrades and the installation of a 50,000 pound vault. This work was completed without greatly impacting another tenant in the building.

Scope

GVA Kidder Mathews provided a full project management scope during this successful project.